

FAQ

Do I need to be on the Zoom call on 10/15 to participate?

No, we will record the call. Many of your questions will be answered if you are able to participate.

I want to start rehearsing now, is that okay?

Yes, we have shared the videos and song sheets to help you.

I am not a good singer, should I still participate?

YES! Our voices are stronger together.

I don't know how to record on my phone can someone help me?

Yes, reach out to Louri Sullivan, lsullivan@jewishomaha.org and we will find a way to record you.

I don't have a gmail account how do I submit my video?

Go to <https://wetransfer.com> and email to info@koolulam.com with your name and if you are doing Voice 1 or Voice 2.

What kind of headphones do I need to use?

Any kind will work, some computers have a place to plug in and others will link your wireless through your Bluetooth. If you have a large group you may just have one set of headphones or a phone to play the music quietly in the background.

Do I have to sing the whole song, I don't know Hebrew?

Just sing what you are comfortable singing. Koolulam will produce the video looking for parts that you are having fun and look good so remember to smile and enjoy yourself while filming.

Can I film my part and share via YouTube? No, please do it on a phone or computer and share via the google doc or wetransfer.
