

Bennett G. Hornstein Memorial Scholarship Application

The family of the late Bennett G. Hornstein established the Bennett G. Hornstein Endowment Fund in partnership with the Jewish Federation of Omaha Foundation. The endowment funds an annual scholarship, awarded to an aspiring law student in an effort to carry on Hornstein's commitment to working for the poor and powerless and striving to make a difference in the Nebraska community.

Hornstein lost an eight-year battle with cancer in March 1986 at the young age of 46. During his life, he was an inspiration to his family, friends and colleagues, demonstrating unwavering selflessness and commitment to helping those who needed it most. After receiving his law degree at the University of California at Berkeley, Hornstein decided to spend a significant portion of his life helping people who were hated, who were detested, and whom nobody else would help. He carried out that promise case by case in his over 20 years as an attorney, from Nebraska courtrooms all the way to the United States Supreme Court.

Nearing the twentieth anniversary of Hornstein's death, his family established the Bennett G. Hornstein Memorial Scholarship as part of their ongoing efforts to celebrate his life and legacy. Family members include his wife Nancy and three children, Jill Goldstein, Beth Hornstein and Joe Hornstein. Their mission is to educate and reward the next generation of attorneys who will forge a place in their respective legal communities.

Candidates should display a high standard of academic achievement, an adventurous spirit and a desire to take on an active role in service to the community. Applicants also must be attending law school at the University of Nebraska or Creighton University.

Scholarships are awarded for the academic year beginning in the fall of the year in which the award is made.
